A few words from your Reader ...

Dear Friends,

A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS
NEW YEAR TO ALL OF YOU!

I wonder how many of you have made New Year Resolutions? As each New Year begins, we are filled with the hope and expectation of what lies ahead. Many of us like to make resolutions to change the way in which we think and act. The more popular resolutions include things like getting fitter, losing weight, taking up a new interest, being more organised, finding more family time and so on. And, how many of those resolutions actually last for more than a few days? The fact is, that to maintain a new interest or activity, you need to keep going for at least 21 days. It seems that once you pass that magical 21st day, the pattern is more or less set and it becomes easier to maintain.

From a Christian perspective, how many of us set ourselves a New Year's Resolution based around Bible study, worship or prayer? How many of us make the conscious decision to tithe our income or increase our stewardship in terms of both time and money? Our Christian faith should be an active and vibrant faith, in which we search for ways to become more like Christ. When God came down to earth at Christmastime, He came to show us how much He loves us. Jesus instructs us to do the same ~ to love God and to love our neighbour as we would love ourselves ~ and how do we respond?

Just before Christmas, we saw the devastation caused by Storm Desmond in Cumbria and elsewhere. Homes and livelihoods were destroyed; villages were cut off by roads blocked with landslides. Those storms left many thousands of people without heat and power; and unable to prepare meals. They became reliant upon the generosity of others. The offers of help soon poured in from people of all faiths, and none; neighbourhoods pulled together to clear up the mess and devastation left behind. It didn't matter who or what you were; the help was still given and as those communities continue to rebuild their lives now that the media has turned its mind to other news, I hope that the generosity of others will live on.

So, what of our future, here at St. Paul's? This year will be what we make it and we look forward with hope and expectation. We are still in Vacancy and will remain that way for several more months. The Churchwardens and PCC are working tirelessly to keep the Parish running smoothly; and to make sure that the services and events that usually take place are happening. There are also many other people working hard in the background, supporting and encouraging; and for that we are extremely grateful.

The next major event in our Church calendar is the Churches Together Service during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. It is our turn to host this service and I would encourage you to support us on Wednesday 20th January. The following Sunday (24th) will be our Patronal Festival weekend and a Jacob's Join is being organised for after the 10:30am Service. More details will follow but make a note of it in your diary now.

As we begin 2016, let us all make a resolution to live in the love, joy and fellowship of Christ as we seek to serve Him and our neighbours throughout the coming year.

Yours in Christ

Janet K.

A Prayer for the Vacancy

Heavenly Father, you have called us together as members of your Church in this parish. Deepen our love for you and strengthen our fellowship one with another as we face this time of uncertainty and change. Keep us faithful in prayer and worship; and fill us with your vision and energy as we seek to bring new life to our community.

Strengthen and guide Alan and Sheila, the PCC and the Parish Representatives as they take the Parish forward; and speak into the hearts of all those whom you are calling to serve in this Parish, that they may hear your call and be obedient to your calling. This we ask in the name of your beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hello and Happy New Year to you all. Another year has started meaning that Christmas is now behind us, the rest of the turkey is in the freezer awaiting yet more inspiration, and why oh why did we buy/make so many mince pies?

Our Christmas lunch at the Chadwick Hotel was a great success with a lovely atmosphere and most enjoyable meal. Our guest was the M.U. Deanery Presiding Member Elizabeth Carey.

Our Annual General Meeting is on 25th January when our subscriptions of £19.00 are due. Please put the correct amount in an envelope with your name on and hand it to Judith. Don't forget to bring something for our red and green stall.

FELLOWSHIP MEETING

Calling all parishioners ~ on 25th February we have Mr John Boe to speak at the meeting, telling us of his army career and service in Afghanistan.
Please take note of the date and bring along a friend to support this meeting.

Once again may I wish you all a Happy and Healthy New Year.

PARISHIONER'S CORNER

Thank You

Thanks to all the people who helped in the Christmas Coffee Morning and thanks to all who came and hopefully enjoyed their coffee and mince pies and a look around the stalls. Despite the weather we all enjoyed the morning. An amount of over £650 was made and is a welcome contribution to our Church Funds.

Also, it really was lovely to have the Church open during the morning and people enjoyed looking round our Church. Thank you to the volunteer guides and to Linda who added to it by playing some lovely music.

Sheila

Christmas Boxes

I have had a letter of 'Thanks' from International Aid for our boxes and donations of money. They looked good when they were loaded into the van. Once again a very big thank you to all who brought items each month. Hopefully we will start again in February.

Leprosy Boxes

It is time once again to send off our Leprosy Donations. If anyone has a Leprosy Box, or would like to make a donation, please would they let me have it as soon as possible. The total raised for 2015 has been £288.83.

Thank You

Janet K.

Thank You

David, Michael, Anthony and Kate Gaskell thank everyone at St. Paul's for their messages of sympathy and support over recent weeks. These have been a great help at a very difficult time. I offer a special 'Thank You' to the ladies who worked so hard in the Church Hall before, during and after the Reception. God bless you all.

NOTES FROM THE ORGAN LOFT

Last month our editor placed some delightful pictures of little fun-loving mice at the end of my Notes from the Organ Loft. I wonder whether these mice felt aggrieved that, on page 14 of the same magazine, the article on 'Silent Night' omitted the legendary story about the part played by the mice in the composition of that carol tune. The story goes that the music was written so that it could be played on a guitar, because mice had damaged the mechanism of the church's organ, rendering it unplayable. It is true that small creatures like mice and moths can cause havoc with organs and pianos, but the mice would have had to nibble for a very long time before the organ would fail completely!

Carol Singing

At the time of writing we have made the first of our Carol Singing Visits in the local community. At South Hey Community Centre our singers, though small in number, conveyed the Christmas message through their smiling faces, their good humour and singing. David and Ken were a hit in their portrayal of King Wenceslas.

"Songs of Praise"

Our next "Songs of Praise" service is on 31st January. The deadline for hymn requests is Sunday 3rd January.

Saint of the Month

Felix of Nola (d. 260)

Feast Day ~ 14th January

What do you do when you find a large spider web in your house? If you ever feel some sympathy for the spider who went to all that trouble, then Felix is a good patron saint for you. He was saved by such a spider, spinning such a web.

Felix had been born to a Syrian soldier who had retired to Nola, near Naples in Italy. When his father died, Felix gave his property and money away, and was ordained by St Maximus of Nola. Felix went to work with him, ministering to the people of Nola.

Then Decius, the Roman Emperor, began another persecution of the Christians. Maximus escaped to the mountains, but Felix was arrested and badly beaten. Legend has it that he was rescued – and freed from captivity - by an angel. In any case, Felix followed Maximus and found him sick and in need. Felix hid him in an empty building, and prayed for God's protection. The soldiers were out looking for the two men, but then a spider arrived at the door of the building where they were hiding. The spider spun such a magnificent web across the door that it fooled the imperial soldiers into thinking the building was long abandoned. The spider save Maximus and Felix that day, and the two men stayed on the run until Decius' death in 251.

After that, the people of Nola wanted Felix as their bishop. But Felix refused, and returned to farming his lands; giving the poor most of the food that he managed to grow. Though Felix went on to die naturally, he was still thought of as a martyr, or 'witness' because he had suffered torture, imprisonment and privations in the persecution. Felix did not mind: he served a King who was not of this world, and he looked forward to a better future life with that King in a new heaven and a new earth.

NEW YEAR 2016

If we put our hand in God's hand
As we enter this New Year
Not knowing what the future holds
But that our Friend is near.

We shall not fear what lies ahead
If He is by our side,
Nor wander from the pathway
If He will be our guide.

The Sinless One from heaven came
To dwell with us on earth,
He sought and bought us with His blood
And offered us new birth.

Now as we travel through this year
He knows the things He's planned,
So let us trust and know just this -
Our times are in His hands.

By Megan Carter

A New Year's Resolution Prayer Following in His Footsteps

Almighty, eternal, just and merciful God, grant us the desire to do only what pleases you, and the strength to do only what you command. Cleanse our souls, enlighten our minds, and inflame our hearts with your Holy Spirit, that we may follow in the footsteps of your beloved Son, Jesus Christ.

St Francis of Assisi 1182 – 1226

Most popular Bible Stories

No. 1 ~ The Feeding of the 5000 (Matthew 13:13-21)

This month sees the start a new series on Scripture Union's Top Ten Must Know Stories. These were voted by parents and teachers as the most important Bible stories to share with the next generation. We begin with the feeding of the 5000, a story found in all four gospels and telling us important truths about Jesus and our relationship with Him.

Jesus and His disciples were confronted with a huge crowd (at least 10,000 including the women and children) in a lonely place with no food! When the disciples suggested that He send them away, Jesus challenged them: 'you give them something to eat' (v.16). When we see the spiritual needs of own community, Jesus challenges us with the same words! So how do we respond?

Look with compassion: 'When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, He had compassion on them' (v.14). Do we see people in the same way, as those in all kinds of need, often lacking meaning and purpose in their lives? Unless we feel the needs as Jesus did, we cannot respond to those we meet at work, school, or in our community.

Respond in obedience: The disciples simply offered what they had to Jesus: 'Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, He gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people.' (v.19)

When meeting the needs of others we simply offer to Jesus what we have, however insignificant it may seem, for Him to multiply to feed the crowd. He will use our plans, skills, time and energy. However, it is often only when we come to the end of ourselves, that God's power can be released through us.

Observations on Christian life and faith:

If we are taken up with our own personal needs, or if we are looking for position and status in the church, we shall be of little use to God. - David Watson

Time for a Smile

Cold Ministry

Two missionaries were comparing notes about their work in the arctic settlements of Siberia. "It was so cold where we were," boasted one, "that the candle froze during our church service and we couldn't blow it out."

"That's nothing," said the other. "Where we were it was so cold that my sermons came out in chunks of ice and the congregation had to thaw them to see what I was talking about."

In a tradition dating back to 1977, the churchwardens re-enacted "Star Wars"

The Puppy

A clergyman was walking down the street when he came upon a group of about a dozen boys, surrounding a small puppy. Concerned lest the boys were hurting it, he went to investigate. One boy explained, "We just found this puppy, and we all want him. So we've decided that whichever one of us can tell the biggest lie will get to take him home."

The minister was taken aback. "Don't you boys know it's a sin to lie? Why, when I was your age, I never told a lie." There was dead silence for a moment. The minister thought he had got through to them.

Then the smallest boy gave a deep sigh and said, "All right, give him the dog."

"The Vicar's New Year Resolution is to attract more people by implementing a less formal approach to church-going."
