A few words from your Reader...

Dear Friends,

We are well into our journey through Lent and I wonder how it is progressing? Did you promise to give up something for Lent, like chocolate, biscuits or maybe even your cups of tea or coffee? Maybe you decided to take on something extra such as in-depth Bible study, longer prayer times or perhaps reading a Lenten book. Whatever your choices, there will have been times when you may well have felt like giving up. Maybe you've thought 'What's the point?' or 'Who's going to notice?' or 'Who's going to care?'

If we look at the situation from a different perspective, what would have happened if Jesus had given up when he was all alone in the wilderness without food or water? What if he'd agreed to do what the devil said and turned the stones into bread to satisfy his hunger? What if he had trusted the angels to save him as he leapt from the temple in order to prove that he was the Son of God? What if he'd agreed to become master of all that he could see in return for worshipping the devil?

The thing is that Jesus was 100% obedient to the will of his Father. He was 100% committed to the task that was set before him. If he ever had doubts or fears, we don't hear about them, except for one instance in the Garden of Gethsemane, when he begged that the cup be taken from him. It was at this point that there was no turning back from what lay ahead ~ the pain and humiliation; the desertion by his much-loved disciples; and an horrific death upon the cross. Is it not a humbling thought that Jesus went through all of this for you and for me? He loved the people of this world so much that he was prepared to die upon a cross and take our sins with him, once and for all!

I don't know about you, but I always find Holy Week and Easter a very emotional time. On the one hand we are looking forward to Easter and the Resurrection and yet on the other, we re-live each painful step of the journey towards the cross beginning with the triumphant entry into Jerusalem, and followed by a Last Supper with his disciples before finally suffering the isolation of the Crucifixion.

But, as we all know, that wasn't the end of the story because on the third day Jesus rose again, in victory. He had conquered death; all the pain and suffering was behind him. Through his death and resurrection, Jesus has created for us a fresh start; a clean slate free of sin. He died that we might be forgiven!

“In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.” (1 John 4:10)

So, I invite all of you, whoever you are, to share in that journey as the family of St. Paul's prepares once again to witness to the final week of Christ's life. Join us on Palm Sunday and receive your palm cross. Share in the Last Supper on Maundy Thursday. Witness as part of Churches Together on Good Friday; and raise your voices as we celebrate the Risen Christ on Easter Sunday. The dates and times of all our services can be found on the back page.

I wish you all Happy Easter, blessed with joy and peace!

Yours in Christ

Janet K.

Good News!

We are delighted to announce the appointment of the Rev. Paul Bye as our new vicar at St. Paul's Church.

We look forward to welcoming Paul, along with his wife, Ruth and their three young daughters, Emily (6), Anna (4) and Abigail (nearly 2).

Please pray for Paul and the family as they prepare to move into the area later this year.

Mothers' UNION

Christian care for families

Hello Everyone,

It was lovely to see so many members for our Annual General Meeting at the end of January. Janet Rees was elected as our Branch Leader and we have two new Committee members in Marjorie Crabtree and Hilary Gamble. There was also enthusiastic trade on our Red and Green table.

It seems time to be giving a number of reminders about up-coming dates in March:

- 4th March Women's World Day of Prayer. St Annes Baptist Church
- 6th March Mothering Sunday (gosh isn't it early this year).
- 10th March Quiet Evening, St. Paul's, Warton. If anyone needs a lift and hasn't already arranged it, please give me a ring.
- 21st March Monthly meeting. Please bring a poem or reading which you associate with Easter. If a number of us do this it will make an interesting start to Holy Week.

Look out for future notice of our Summer Outing and Summer Lunch, and don't forget the BEETLE DRIVE ~ a Fellowship event will be held in May.

Jean Lyon

With Easter in mind....

Gethsemane invites us to consider ... what it meant for Jesus to be, in a unique sense, God's Son. The very moment of greatest intimacy – the desperate prayer to 'Abba, Father' – is also the moment where ... he is set on the course for the moment of God-forsakenness on the cross. (Tom Wright)

NOTES FROM THE ORGAN LOFT

LENT LUNCH AND ORGAN RECITAL

Wednesday 9th March

This event will follow the formula we've adopted at St. Paul's in recent years. The first course will be soup and rolls served in the Church Hall at 12:30pm. Course two will be a programme of music played on the organ in church. I plan to play a selection of music spanning three centuries. Some tunes will be familiar, some not so familiar, and some will be pieces that members of the congregation have liked when I've played them as voluntaries at our services. After the recital, the third course of the 'meal deal' will be tea/coffee and fellowship back in the hall. Donations will be invited for the charity Open Doors which helps persecuted Christians.

Linda

NOTES FROM THE CHOIR STALLS

Thank you all very much for your kind wishes and cards following the news that I have been awarded a British Empire Medal for my services to the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. I have been overwhelmed by everyone's support and best wishes. I am very much looking forward to receiving my medal from Lord Shuttleworth, the Lord Lieutenant of Lancashire, at Lancashire castle in May and then attending a garden party at Buckingham Palace later in the month. In the meantime I am preparing for my Duke of Edinburgh's Award Diamond Challenge a 60 mile walk over 4 days over the weekend of my 60th birthday in April to raise money for the Award to celebrate its 60th anniversary. If you would like to sponsor me, I am in the process of setting up a "Justgiving" site or you may pass any money to me.

Thank you,

Mary Winterflood BEM!

Advanced Notice of the APCM

Our Annual Parochial Church Meeting will be held on Sunday 17th April.

A Church is made up of lots of people working together.

As we approach the meeting, it is a good opportunity to reflect, as individuals, on our service to God through our work at St. Paul's Church. There are many roles to be carried out in order to enable the church to run on a day to day basis. Is there something you feel you are being called to take on?

We are looking especially for two Church Wardens this year, as both Alan and Sheila will be standing down.

If you intend to contribute or vote at the meeting, you will need to be on the Electoral Roll for the Parish. Please speak to Helen Thompson, Pam Rowell or one of the Wardens, if you would like to be added.

Please commit the needs of the Parish to your prayers.

Eight Hundred Acts of Kindness

A village in North Somerset has undertaken 800 individual acts of kindness to celebrate its local church. The village of Congresbury has exceeded its challenge of more than 800 good deeds to celebrate 800 years of its local parish church, St Andrews. The 3,500 villagers have been taking part in the anonymous Love Congresbury project, where the good deed is written on a small note and posted at the church. Becci North, one of the organisers of Love Congresbury and an active member of the church told Premier that the deeds "range from somebody mowing somebody's lawn, giving somebody a lift to hospital, giving aid to Calais." She said she was "absolutely amazed; it's been wonderful to think that so many people have embraced it, of all ages, all backgrounds of faith, of no faith." Becci said that it was a way of enforcing community and "spreading God's love through the community."

Day of the Month

Mothering Sunday ~ 6th March 2016

There is an old Jewish saying:

*God could not be everywhere,
and therefore He made mothers.*

Mother Church, Mother Earth, Mother of the Gods - our human mothers - all of them have been part of the celebration of 'Mothering Sunday' - as the fourth Sunday in Lent is affectionately known. It has been celebrated in the UK since at least the 16th century.

In Roman times, great festivals were held every Spring to honour Cybele, Mother of all the Gods. Other pagan festivals in honour of Mother Earth were also celebrated. With the arrival of Christianity, the festival became one honouring Mother Church.

During the Middle Ages, young people apprenticed to craftsmen or working as 'live-in' servants were allowed only one holiday a year on which to visit their families - which is how 'Mothering Sunday' got its name. This special day became a day of family rejoicing, and the Lenten fast was broken. In some places the day was called Simnel Day, because of the sweet cakes called simnel cakes traditionally eaten on that day.

In recent years the holiday has changed and in many ways now resembles the American Mothers' Day, with families going out to Sunday lunch and generally making a fuss of their mother on the day.

Resurrection (John 20:1-18)

Even in the darkness
Still she went,
Stumbling, longing for light,
Finding a stone-moved emptiness.
Then her running
And the running and out-running of the men,
The believing whilst not understanding,
The tears and the angels with questions and messages.
Death transformed to Life
In the turning,
And revelation in a name,
Mary!

Lord, sometimes I don't understand
And the world seems dark,
But I choose to turn from darkness to you.
Speak my name Lord,
Hold me safe
In your resurrection power and light.

By Daphne Kitching

Resurrection Prayer

Loving Father,
Thank you for Jesus; for his life and death, but most of all for
His resurrection, which makes all things new and possible.

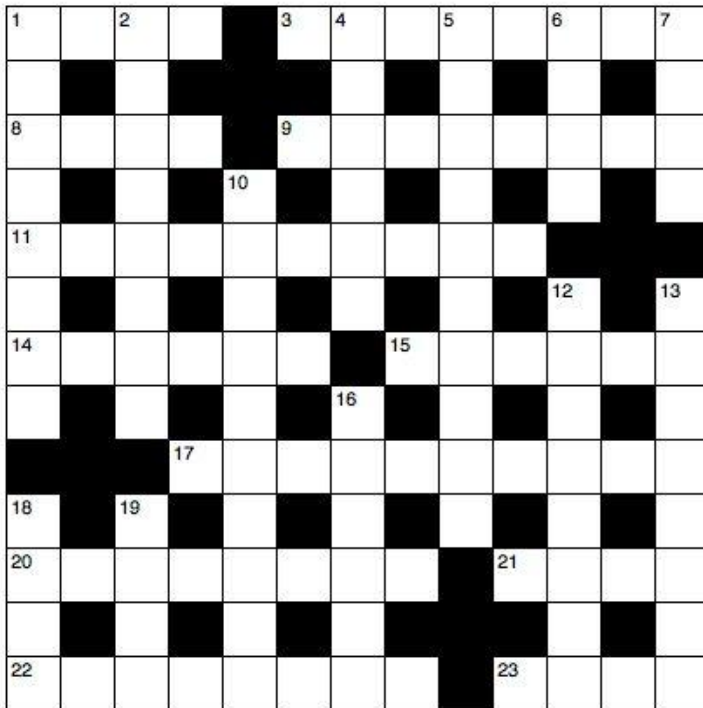

Thank you for the reality that He defeated death by his work on the Cross and offers life forever with Him to all who believe in Him and receive Him into their lives as Lord and Saviour. Thank you for that incomprehensible but very real resurrection peace that we can know even in our darkest times by the presence of your Holy Spirit in us.

In joy and thankfulness we praise and honour you this Easter-time.
In Jesus' name. Amen.

No. 3: The Crucifixion of Jesus

‘Of what conceivable significance, for us today, is the death of a Jew in Palestine two thousand years ago?’

In this month’s Must Know Story we will address this question as we look at the meaning of Jesus’ crucifixion. On the cross Jesus dealt with the problem of our sin. Peter writes, ‘He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed’ (1 Peter 2:24). Jesus died in our place, bore our sins and took our guilt, to pay the full penalty for our sin and to set us free from addiction, fear and ultimately death.

On 31st July 1941 a prisoner escaped from Auschwitz. As a reprisal the Gestapo arbitrarily selected ten men to die in the starvation bunker, including a man called Francis Gajinisdek. He cried out, ‘My poor wife and my children. They’ll never see me again.’ In response an unimpressive looking Polish man stepped forward and said, ‘I’m a Catholic priest. I don’t have a wife and children and I am willing to die instead of this man.’

Maximilian Kolbe was the name of this priest and he went with the others into the bunker. Remarkably he got the prisoners praying and singing hymns and transformed the atmosphere in the bunker. He was the last person to die and after two weeks he was given a lethal injection and died at the age of 47.

Jesus death was even more amazing than this, because He didn’t simply die for one man, but for every individual in the world. If you or I had been the only person in the world, Jesus Christ would still have died in our place. ‘Hallelujah, what a Saviour’!!

Time for a Smile

Hiccups

A 60 year-old lady, who was an excitable type, went to an A & E unit because she had severe hiccups. After an examination by a doctor known for his unpredictable behaviour, she was told she was pregnant. She burst out of his office and demanded to see a more senior doctor. Together, they went back for a discussion with the first doctor. The senior doctor asked for an explanation for his earlier rather outrageous comment. The reply was, "It seems to have cured her hiccups."

Babies

A small child came home from school and told her grandmother they had learned in an English lesson how to make babies. More than a little surprised and trying to keep cool, she asked the child to explain. "It's simple," she replied, you just change the "y" to an "i" and add "es."

New meanings

Dogma - a puppy's mother

Polygon - a lost parrot

The vicar realised that deciphering and trying to make sense of esoteric texts was still an important part of the job.

Flying

An elderly vicar and his wife decided on an overseas holiday, but his wife was nervous as she had never flown before. The day arrived and as they entered the aeroplane, the pilot was standing beside the door welcoming the passengers. The vicar's wife said to him, "I've never flown, so I hope you will bring us down safely." The pilot replied, "I shall do what I can madam, but all I can say is that I've never left anyone up there yet!"
